

HUNTER HARRINGTON MAGAZINE

Y. FREEMAN, MINSTER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.
The Number for December, 1850, completed the 19th tri-annual volume. The work has been continued in the Supplement in July, 1850, and now contains more than 1000 pages.
A few complete sets of the Magazine may be obtained at the publishers office, 526 Fulton street, N. Y. It is neatly and substantially bound, for two dollars half per volume.
The following are a few of the many commendatory
received by the editor of the Merchants Magazine
in its first number:
Letter from the Hon. Henry Clay.
ASHLAND, 20th July 1849.
Dear Sir: I wish to express to you the gratification
I feel on receiving the July number of the Merchants
Magazine and Commercial Review from your office.
I read it in the beginning, and from reading your magazine I have been able to inform my friends at the end of it. When we meet to confer on the subject of the slave, we are naturally desirous to be informed of the progress of the cause, and of the views of the friends of the cause in other parts of the world.

the knowledge of them, or their appearance, or their
of their mind, which we can acquire. You have pl your numerous readers (at least you have me, if I I speak for them) under those obligations, and I
I have been able to do so, and I have been able to
I have satisfied the desire to which I have alluded.
I have become quite familiar with the Magazine
I am convinced that it is eminently entitled to the public re support. It collects and arranges, in good order, s statistical and other information, and it is a v useful not only to the student, but to the man of a, to the cultivator of the earth, to the manufac
the mariner, in short, to all classes of the business entertaining the opinion, I am glad that it has been
that it may continue to be, liberally patronized
the assurance of my warmest wishes.
I am, truly your friend and obedient servant,
Freeman Hunt, ec.

Extract of a letter from Hon. Willard Filmore.
"I have read it (Merchants' Magazine) with a
of attention, and have no hesitation in saying th it is published. To the merchant it seems quite valuable, and to the statesman and man of general interest."

useful facts and information, which can be found ere so well digested and so accessible as in these ra. I only regret that I do not own the whole work.

[illegible]

I am, with great respect, your humble servant.
 I am, Sir, the proprietor of the Merchants' Magazine,
 and the Merchants' Magazine is published monthly at No. 15, Nassau Street, New York, by FREDERICK HUNT, and has 12,000 subscribers for Five Dollars a year, in advance.

SPRING IMPOSITION.

W. S. PHIPPS & CO., 54 and 56 Broadway,
 New York, and 16 Milk street, Boston, are now

[illegible]

COLD SPRING WATER CURE.
The scientific treatment of the various diseases of the human system is effected, is situated at the foot of the Niagara Falls, and is accessible from all points as to be reached with convenience or delay.
A line of continuous runs from the steamboat landings at the foot of the falls every ten minutes, and there are house and grounds are near the extensive artificial green-houses and nurseries of the Messrs. Howe, who grow all the plants and flowers that are used in medicine, as regards either variety or beauty. A fine view, from which may be taken in at a glance the whole of the Falls, the Niagara flowing majestically towards the Falls, the city of Buffalo, the Western City of the Lakes, with its moving panorama of steamboats and countless population.
The house, which is built from the cellar to the roof, is of the most solid Spring, is unsurpassed as regards coldness and purity, by any in the United States. The house, rear-
ment 25

up in a neat and elegant style, at considerable expense, and is sufficiently capacious to accommodate fifty-five patients.

Connected with the establishment, and constituting its attractions, are the fixtures and conveniences for neat and healthful gymnastic exercises.

MEDICAL DEPARTMENT.

The institution is under the general supervision of Dr. J. C. Davis, M. D., Professor of the Theory and Practice of Medicine in Central Medical College, and Geo. W. L. Davis, formerly of Danville, N. Y., the resident physician. The medical department is well provided with all the necessary apparatus and new editions of the center. And the friends of the establishment desire the selection that the services of Miss Mary Rogers, lady-in-waiting to the queen, should have had two courses of lectures in the Central Medical School have been secured, and that female patients could avail themselves of her invaluable services. It is the steward's department under the control of a woman fully qualified for that position; and the patients of the establishment arranged on a plan; and contrivances, to ensure the comfort, and promote the health of the patients. Baths of all descriptions, adapted to the various forms of disease, and constructed on a plan similar to those of any other establishment in the country.

In enlightened public sentiment has everywhere rendered intolerable sufferings in the treatment of disease a necessary demand "Hieform." A return from a fatal departure from the simplicity of Nature's laws, and the necessities of our condition. Hydrophobia, the terrible use of water as a restorative and curative agent, the use of a sample of the system of the enormous mode of curing the disease, the system of the depleting, and cauterizing, which, in obtaining a cure over disease, too frequently places the patient in a more dangerous condition than the disease itself. The Water Cure establishments in this country, to name of any other, has fully confirmed the hopes of the friends of the oppressed, and of the oppressed, in which the system is founded, and renders every

[illegible]